

Privacy Policy for DriftDuelers

Last Updated: July 5, 2025

This Privacy Policy describes how EmptyBracket ("we", "us", or "our") handles information collected through the DriftDuelers mobile app.

1. Information We Collect

We collect the following information directly from users:

- Username and password (handled through Unity Authentication).

We do not collect any other personal information directly. Passwords are not stored by us and are managed through Unity's secure services.

2. Third-Party Services

The app uses third-party services that may collect user data independently. These include:

- Unity (Authentication, Ads, Analytics): <https://unity.com/legal/game-player-and-app-user-privacy-policy>
- IronSource (Ad Mediation): <https://developers.is.com/ironsource-mobile/air/ironsource-mobile-privacy-policy/>

These services may collect:

- Device information
- Advertising identifiers
- Crash and usage data
- Location (approximate)
- Ad interaction data

We do not control or assume responsibility for how these third parties manage user data. Please refer to their respective privacy policies linked above.

3. Children's Privacy

The app is intended for a general audience and may be used by children under 13. We do not knowingly collect personal data from children directly.

However, third-party services like Unity Ads and IronSource may collect data. If you are a parent and believe that your child has provided personal data to us, please contact us.

4. Data Security

We rely on Unity's secure data practices. We do not store sensitive user data or passwords on our own systems.

5. International Users

By using DriftDuelers, you agree that your data may be processed in countries outside your own, including where data protection laws may differ.

6. Your Rights

You may have rights under local laws (e.g., to access, correct, delete, or restrict your data). For such requests, please refer to the privacy policies of Unity and IronSource.

7. Contact

If you have any questions, contact:
